Fast Driving on Main Street.

EDITOR BOURBON NEWS:—

The writer wishes to thank you for the comments made in your last issue on the racing which has been going on all spring and summer on the oiled part of Main street and for which not a single arrest has been made so far as I know.

Section 64, City Ordinances, imposes a fine of from $5 to $15 on "any person" who rides or drives on any street or alley of the city "faster than a slow trot," and let it be noted that this applies to ladies as well as gentlemen.

This reckless driving endangers the lives of all the children who live along the street or have to cross it, and it should be stopped now before some child or old person is killed or maimed for life.

It is easy to arrest the offenders for they are perfectly indifferent and make no effort to conceal their identity. Perhaps they do not know they are violating a city ordinance. I really think this must be true, for I have myself seen them come down Main abreast driving at terrific speed and covering the street from curb to curb, apparently regardless of man, woman or child, who happens to be crossing and who must flee for life or be trampled by the horses, and they only pull up when they strike the paved street at Tenth.

Pedestrians have a right to cross Main street without having to risk their lives to do it, and parents have a right to be protected from the intolerable anxiety to which this risk of the killing or maiming of their children constantly subjects them.

The attention of the Police force is called to this matter.

Let a lookout be kept along Main above Tenth from dusk until 9 or 10 o'clock each night. It will not take more than one or two arrests to put an end to this reckless driving.

If the officers do not see it let persons who do see it give information to the end that the lives of our little children may be protected from this daily peril.

Suffers Stroke of Paralysis.

Mr. Samuel Worthington, who has been living with his daughter, Mrs. Luncford Talbott, suffered a stroke of paralysis Tuesday, while on a visit to his old home in Mason county. He was brought here yesterday on the 7:40 a. m. train from Maysville, and taken to his daughter's residence on Higgin's avenue. Mr. Worthington is 73 years of age, and is one of Mason county's most prominent citizens.

He is the father of Mr. V. Worthington, formerly of the Templin Lumber Co., but more recently of Lexington, where he has embarked in the broom manufacturing business, and a cousin of Mrs. Wm. Remington, of this city, and Mrs. E. P. Claybrook, of the county.

A Just Tribute.

The Carlisle Advocate says of our efficient Chief of Police: "Geo. M. Hill was nominated by the Paris Democrats last Wednesday by a majority of 128 over Jeff Elgin for Chief of Police. George has made a faithful officer, and this is one place where a good man is not turned down in politics."

New Pavement.

A concrete pavement is being put down by Messrs. Stuart & O'Brien on Broadway, in front of the BOURBON NEWS office, and S. E. Borland's paint store. This enterprising firm has just completed pavements as follows: Miss Mary Kiely and W. H. Anderson, Main street; Bud Alexander, two residences on Tenth street, besides the large contract for concrete work around the new court house.

They also have contracts to build pavements for H. O. James, Mrs. Griffith and Swift Champ, Pleasant street, and Ed. D. Paton, two residences on Mt. Airy avenue. Nothing beautifies a city more than concrete pavements, and the fact that the cost is but a trifle more than a good brick pavement, it seems that those of our citizens disposed to assist in the up-building and beautifying of our city, should seriously consider the matter of replacing the old brick sidewalks abutting their property with concrete.
